

The Jackson County Department of Public Health,
The Jackson County Family Resource Center &
Region A Partnership for Children are excited to present

Parenting Now!

The First Three Years

This program is for parents of infants, ones & twos

- Meet other parents, form friendships & support networks
- Build trust with your child to form a bond for life
- Understanding and connecting with your unique child: Early Communication
- But what about me? Taking care of ourselves and each other
- How baby's early experiences benefit healthy growth and development
- Beyond baby: Adult relationships
- Toys, play and parenting styles
- Family strengths and areas for growth.

Babies don't come with an instruction manual, but Parenting Now! class can help.

Class will begin February 21, 2011

This course will be held for ten weeks.

Class is free with a meal and child care provided
5:30pm to 7:30pm at Jackson Co. Family Resource Center
Webster, NC

Call to register:
Sally@ 587-8286 or Ginger@586-2845